

6th November 2012

Xtend2 represent FENAVIN 2013 in the UK and Republic of Ireland

Xtend2 have been selected as the UK and Republic of Ireland representative for FENAVIN, the most important national wine fair in Spain – open to trade only. Xtend2 has been working with FENAVIN since 2005.

FENAVIN takes place between 7th and 9th May 2013 and Xtend2 will be inviting Spanish wine fans to join an escorted Buyers Mission where delegates can taste the best of Spanish wines and meet Spain's top winemakers.

Delegates will experience the famous Wine Gallery where over 1000 brands are on display including an increasing amount of organic wines. They can also try practically all the wines that the Spanish Terroir produce and meet the smallest right through to the biggest wine makers.

Many of Xtend2's delegates from previous missions return to FENAVIN year after year, benefiting from the outstanding business opportunities and contacts that FENAVIN offers.

Importers and journalists who join the Buyers Mission will enjoy a superb package including free travel and accommodation (subject to approval).

Xtend2 will be taking requests for places on the Mission from 5th November 2012.
